PRESS RELEASE

Walter A. Eife of Haddonfield's McLaughlin Asset Management, Inc. Selected for Gathering of Nation's Elite Financial Advisors

Haddonfield, NJ – August 7, 2015— Walter A. Eife, AIF, Director of Retirement Plans at McLaughlin Asset Management, Inc., a Haddonfield-based wealth management firm, was once again selected as a delegate to the National Association of Plan Advisors' (NAPA) DC Fly-In Forum, an exclusive gathering of the nation's top elite 401(k) plan advisors held on Capitol Hill July 21-22. Delegates are required to be a NAPA member, to be responsible for $10M+ in plan assets, 10+ plans and 2,000+ participants, and to have at least five years' experience servicing plans.

As a delegate, Eife attended as an advocate for employers and plan participants, listening to and briefing top Congressional leaders about the importance and future of the nation's workplace retirement plans, and sharing how proposed laws and regulations might impact American workers' retirement security. These elite advisors heard updates on federal regulations affecting their industry from top Congressional leaders including Speaker of the House John Boehner (R-Ohio) and Senator Jon Tester (D-Montana), who currently sits on the Senate Appropriations and Banking Committees. Discussions about the Labor Department's fiduciary proposal included remarks from Deputy Assistant Secretary of Labor Judy Mares, as well as Tom Selman, Executive Vice President, Regulatory Policy and Legal Compliance Officer at FINRA. Labor Department audits were also addressed as well as a special panel of ERISA litigators sharing insights on issues, lessons learned, and best practices emerging from the revenue-sharing litigation, including the US Supreme Court's recent decision Tibble v. Edison International. Delegates also met one-on-one with their respective congressional representatives to share insights from their daily experiences with business owners and plan participants.

NAPA (ww.napa-net.org) is part of the American Retirement Association, a non-profit professional organization focused on educating professionals in the industry and creating a framework of policy that gives every working American the ability to have a comfortable retirement. It is the only advocacy group exclusively focused on the issues that matter to retirement plan advisors providing advocacy, business intelligence, and networking – all designed to keep plan advisors in the forefront of the industry.

For over 20 years, McLaughlin Asset Management, Inc. has been working with companies to establish, review and monitor their corporate retirement plans. * The firm has access to a national depth of resources through membership in the Retirement Plan Advisory Group (RPAG), a well-established alliance of over 900 accomplished retirement plan advisors with roughly $150 billion in defined contribution assets under advisement.
